I am once again pleased to share the Housing & Residential Services Annual Report, an account of the achievements and contributions by individual members and program units in our department during the 2004-05 academic year. This year’s report not only describes unit highlights, but focuses on the way the units lived out the values stated on our “We Are About…” card and the Educational Equity Plan.

H&RS provides housing and associated residential life services for UC Santa Barbara’s undergraduate student, graduate student and faculty population. We employ a staff of 692 FTE in the department which equates to 422 regular employees and more than 800 student employees. H&RS is a campus auxiliary department within the division of Administrative Services, reporting through the Vice Chancellor for Administrative Services. As Executive Director of Housing & Residential Services, I serve as UC Santa Barbara’s chief housing officer.

Our organizational structure is designed to permit cooperation in managing the service programs within the organization. The programs include Apartment & Community Living (Family Student Housing, Single Student Apartments, and Community Housing Office), Business & Financial Planning (Budget & Finance, Faculty Housing Services, Information Systems & Technology, and Human Resource Development), Residential Dining Services, Residential Life, and Residential Operations (Maintenance & Energy Programs, Custodial & Landscaping Services, Campus Conference Services, and Project Management). This organizational structure works to provide specific focus to the primary services of the housing program.

I want to draw special attention to how the department achieved success in the areas of the Physical Plant, Student Life, Sustainability, Technology and Campus Connections (see highlights at right). Through these examples, H&RS staff members have shown how they strive for excellence in key areas that lead to satisfaction for our residents, staff and other customers.

As this report demonstrates, each program unit within H&RS maintained a commitment to student residents and to staff members. Please take a moment to acknowledge the hard work of the people in Housing & Residential Services as we continue to strive to be our best. Thank you for reading about the accomplishments from 2004-05.

PRIOR TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE UCSB CAMPUS, the enactment of the California Dormitory Revenue Bond Act in 1947 gave the University the authority to finance student housing facilities through the sale of revenue bonds. In 1958, The Regents issued the initial revenue bond indenture for the Group A Housing System.

When the campus moved from the Riviera, it established a goal of providing housing for approximately 25% of enrollment. Construction of the present residence hall facilities started in 1954 with Santa Rosa Hall. Prior to the opening of this hall, students were housed in buildings converted from the Marine base facilities. These residences were known as the “Casitas Halls.”

The 1955 opening of Santa Rosa Hall was followed by the opening of Ortega Dining Commons in 1957; Anacapa Hall in 1959; Santa Cruz Hall and De La Guerra Dining Commons in 1960; San Miguel Hall in 1963; and San Nicolas Hall in 1966. Construction of the original six residence halls was completed in 1968 with the opening of San Rafael Hall and Carrillo Dining Commons. Construction of the present apartment facilities started in 1963 with the West Campus Apartments. The Storke Apartments were constructed in 1972 and expanded in 1981; the Santa Ynez Apartments were constructed in 1980 and expanded in 1987. The University acquired the Westgate and El Dorado West Apartments in 1983 as part of the Registration Fee Housing Acquisition Program. Manzanita Village became UCSB’s seventh residence hall community when it opened to 800 students in 2002. The University purchased Francisco Torres Hall in December 2002, bringing the total of residence hall complexes to eight. The University houses approximately 4,700 students in residence halls and 1,500 students in apartments.

In 1971, the housing services at UCSB experienced significant organizational changes. In the years prior to 1971, those functions of the housing program related to student life were under the direction of the Dean of Students (and the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs). The business related functions were under the direction of the Campus Business Manager (and the Vice Chancellor of Business Affairs). In the fall of 1971, all components of the housing program were reorganized under the direction of one administrator, who reported to the Vice Chancellor for Business Affairs. The premise behind the new organization was that student housing needs and programs could be addressed in a more responsive and efficient manner if all the organizational units related to housing shared common goals, consistent objectives, and unified management. Thus, the department that would become H&RS was created with its first chief housing officer.

H&RS has reported to Business Affairs (1971-79), Administrative & Student Affairs (1980-81), Student & Community Affairs (1981-89), Housing & Auxiliary Services (1990-93), and Administrative Services (1994-present).

Housing & Residential Services is many things to many people.

We are relationships.

Relationships with our residents. Relationships with faculty & staff across campus. Relationships with the local community. Relationships within and throughout our department.

We impact campus life and thrive on how it impacts us. We reflect on the past to plan for the future—ours, theirs, and yours.

We make a difference.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SANTA BARBARA, is a distinguished university recognized for its leadership by state, national, and world academic communities. Housing & Residential Services exists as an integral part of the educational program and academic services of UCSB. Inherent in the operation of Housing & Residential Services is the formation and support of an atmosphere that is conducive to living and learning for our residents and for those who use our services. Housing & Residential Services promotes the academic mission of UCSB and creates through support services and developmental programs a sense of community among students, faculty and staff.

The mission of Housing & Residential Services is based on the following premises:

- Learning is a continuous process.
- A community is positively served by responsible social behavior.
- The professional and paraprofessional staff serve as role models to the larger community.
- People learn from diversity.
- Environment affects behavior: A positive environment promotes positive behavior.
- Community action and involvement are key ingredients in the democratic process.
- Proper nourishment is equally important to a student’s intellectual development.
WITH MORE THAN 400 FULL-TIME STAFF MEMBERS, it is imperative that Housing & Residential Services devote resources to the development of staff. New staff members receive an orientation to the departmental values, which are then reinforced through Town Hall meetings and our “YES!” (“You Are Exceptional Staff!”) program. Efforts are made to address staff concerns through the Strategic Plan as well as departmental planning efforts. And, most notably, Housing & Residential Services devotes time and resources to cutting edge training and development programs, which are described in more detail on the next page.
YES Program

HOUSING & RESIDENTIAL SERVICES takes staff morale seriously. The YES! Program (“You Are Exceptional Staff!”) was established to foster and encourage peer recognition and achievement. The program strives to reward employees for living out the core departmental values found on the “We Are About” card (see page 11).

‘Value Vouchers’ (see below) are the heart of the process in everyday work life, but the quarterly town hall meetings are where the program really comes to life. Prize giveaways as well as individual trophies are awarded to employees exemplifying each of the seven values. In addition, an annual award, the Mentor of Exceptional Service, is presented at the Spring Town Hall meeting to an organization or individual (local, departmental, or national) living out the vision and values H&RS seeks to embody.

The program is supported by a committee of staff volunteers who keep the process going by gathering prizes, circulating trophies, counting vouchers and developing new ideas. This program is staff celebrating staff from the ground up!

Value Vouchers

Randy Bittner of Residential Operations remembers a checkbook sticking out of a colleague’s purse at a YES Committee meeting as the inspiration for an idea to reward staff achievements. Voucher ‘checkbooks’ are given to all H&RS staff members to be distributed to co-workers whom they feel have lived out one or more of the seven ‘We Are About’ values in their work. Each quarter, employees bring the vouchers they have received to the Town Hall meeting and place them in raffle bins for valuable prizes. During the meeting, a drawing is held and prize winners are chosen. Each winning voucher is read aloud celebrating the exceptional service exemplified by the employee, and the individual taking the time to recognize it. The process rewards departmental values, employees who live them as well as the act of rewarding peer achievement. After each Town Hall, the vouchers are counted and four additional trophy ‘candy bowls’ are distributed to employees receiving the most vouchers.

A Value Voucher, to be filled out and given to a fellow employee.

Professional Development Program

HOUSING & RESIDENTIAL SERVICES maintains a commitment to recruiting, hiring and retaining the best possible staff. The Professional Development Program is a key means for supporting and developing our valuable staff members. Each staff member is encouraged to set goals for development each year, and is provided with opportunities to develop skills and learn new information for their field of work. The Professional Competency Program is an extensive, in-house training program designed to provide the skills and knowledge to succeed within H&RS.

Professional Competency: Year 1

The research and design for the Professional Competency Program Year 1 was accomplished throughout January 1996 to November 1997. Since that time the program has been continuously evaluated and modified to meet the needs of the department and stay on the cutting edge of professional development training. The current program uses the Leadership Curriculum offered through Performance Development Solutions Company. A small group of 10-12 employees are selected and meet once a week for three hours over a five month period.

Professional Competency: Year 1 (Bilingual and Spanish-Speaking)

The research and design processes for our Bilingual and Spanish-speaking Professional Competency Program Year 1 have resulted in the Leadership Development curriculum offered through Performance Development Solutions Company. Marlene Cohen has served as the class facilitator assisted by Maria Arroyo, both of whom are full-time staff in Housing & Residential Services.

Professional Competency: Year 2

The Professional Competency Year 2 component was offered for the first time in Spring of 2002. After offering the Year 1 experience for six years and graduating approximately 160 people, the Professional Competency Committee decided to develop a Year 2 program in order to support our value for Continuous Learning & Growth. In the Fall of 2002, the Year 2 program was offered to three different groups of graduates. Based on the themes of personal responsibility and self-accountability, the Professional Competency Year 2 program has met with much success. Steve Dewart from Earth-Based Institute, Inc. serves as the facilitator for the Year 2 program. This class is comprised of six to eight staff members and meets approximately one time per month for four hours in a small group setting. In addition, each participant experiences two to three individual work sessions with the facilitator throughout the seven month duration of the program.
NEWLY HIRED STAFF MEMBERS in Housing & Residential Services are given a laminated card with their orientation packets when they begin working for the department. The We Are About... card contains seven sentences stating the core values H&RS employees strive to exemplify in their daily work. These values were developed by staff members to reflect what we are about in our service to the organization, in our relationships with fellow employees, and most importantly, in our work for our customers.

- Exceptional service to those we serve
- Continuous learning & growth
- Respecting & understanding individual differences
- Building partnerships & helping others succeed
- Being environmentally sensitive
- Having fun & being passionate about our work
- Striving to be the best!
IN ORDER TO FOCUS on our identified values and priorities, Housing & Residential Services engages in numerous planning processes. The Strategic Plan, Capital Plan, Housing Plan and Educational Equity Plan help us prepare for the future, keeping our visions in mind. These planning processes often bring together H&RS staff and the broader campus community to help create visions that will direct our priorities in the future.
Strategic Plan

Housing & Residential Services held a Strategic Planning Conference in 1998 to establish direction and priorities for the department through the year 2010. Vision Statements were created focusing on developing World Class Facilities, The Best Housing Value, Inclusive Learning Environments, Outstanding Customer Service, Valued Staff Members, Customer-Centered High-Tech Services, Pro-Active Energy and Resource Management, and Partnerships Within and Beyond the Department.

In January of 2003, H&RS staff members along with guests from several campus departments conducted a “mid-point check-in” on the original Strategic Plan. A key focus of the conference was to assess progress toward the “Valued Staff Members” Vision Statement. Action Teams were formed to make sure that staff remain valued during this time of growth and change.

See the 2004-05 Strategic Plan update on page 33.

Educational Equity Plan

Housing & Residential Services’ (H&RS) Educational Equity Plan (EEP) was first created in 1990 to assist H&RS in managing the commitment to diversity that has been expressed at the departmental, divisional, university and system-wide level. The EEP provides an opportunity to evaluate our efforts and to connect them to an integrated, systematic, department-wide design. Unit Directors work with their areas to evaluate progress toward the goals of the EEP.

In 1999, we focused our efforts on four strategies: Provide Access, Increase Empowerment, Encourage Awareness, and Build Understanding. These overlapping strategies are designed to ensure that H&RS provides access where it is lacking and sustains an environment that encourages success for our diverse student and staff population.

See pages 23-24 for examples of how each unit lives out the values of the EEP in their day-to-day work.

Housing Plan

As part of the campus Long Range Development Plan, Housing & Residential Services must provide affordable housing opportunities to enroll and retain the best students and recruit and retain the best faculty and staff. With this in mind, Housing & Residential Services launched a Housing Master Plan process to identify housing needs, goals and potential solutions through the year 2020. Urban Design Associates (UDA) led our campus through a planning process, which involved focus groups with students, staff, and faculty. The final report officially titled “The UCSB Campus Housing Plan/Study” was approved by the Campus Planning Committee in the fall of 2005.

Also see the 2004-05 Housing Plan update on page 33.

Capital Plan

By updating Housing & Residential Services’ Capital Plan yearly, we maintain and renew our current housing stock while expanding the housing options for the campus population.

Also see the 2004-05 Capital Plan update on page 34.

Boxes above provide descriptions of the various long-term planning programs in Housing & Residential Services. See also the respective sections in the Annual Report for updates on events occurring in 2004-05.
Looking Back ...on a year can be both rewarding and enlightening. There are projects completed, solutions applied, customers satisfied, and goals achieved. Housing & Residential Services staff in five units work together to strive to be the best we can be. See where we have succeeded, what we have learned, and where we are going.

IN JANUARY OF 2003 a follow-up Strategic Planning conference was held to assess progress toward the Vision Statement created at the first conference in 1998. A key focus of this meeting was to evaluate progress toward the “Valued Staff Members” Vision Statement. In response to discussions at the conference, four action teams were formed: Communication Input, Communication Output, Financial Advice, and Work/Life. Although the majority of their work was completed by spring of 2004, several goals were also accomplished during 2004-05.

Several members of the Communication Output Action Team (COAT) planned and facilitated an Administrative staff retreat to follow-up on the recommendations that the COAT team made for the department. This workshop was intended to enhance relationships and learning among office personnel, specifically related to communication with our customers, our colleagues, and across units in H&RS.

Thirty-six administrative staff members attended the workshop which included an Intranet overview, update on computer training, and a panel of H&RS representatives who discussed communication tools and “best practices.” Brainstorming occurred on recommendations for communicating and connecting, and those attending learned more about one another and the significant role that each person has in the organization.

Two recommendations were completed based on recommendations from the Communications Output and Communication Input Action Teams:

1. Computer stations were installed for custodians, maintenance, grounds, and dining employees.
2. Translation efforts were increased throughout the department, such as Spanish translation at the Town Hall meetings, and translating many departmental and unit correspondences into Spanish.

The Work/Life Action Team’s suggestions related to flexible work schedule were enacted in several units. This meant many staff were able to create flexibility with work schedules (e.g., 30-minute lunch).
ONE OF OUR EIGHT STRATEGIC PLAN visions is to have “world class facilities” by achieving excellence in all of our housing venues. Housing & Residential Services is currently involved in a facility investment strategy that will renew our existing housing stock and increase the housing available to the UCSB student community. We expect new and upgraded facilities that will set a 21st century standard for residential living and learning. Our investment strategy has allowed us to respond effectively to the needs of the student housing community, while maintaining rates at below market levels. The magnitude of our capital program will create a larger organization and physical plant over a very short span of time. Our goal will be to maintain our health and vitality as an organization as we continue to provide resources that fulfill our value of quality service.

Targeted at our graduate student community, the San Clemente Apartments is a 972-bed complex slated for a partial opening during the 2007-08 academic year. San Clemente is sited at the El Colegio border of the Storke fields. A combination of studio, two-bedroom and four-bedroom units, San Clemente will be the campus’ first housing facility dedicated to single graduate students.

Two renewal projects will address compliance with UC guidelines and other physical deficiencies, including fire safety. The goal is to modernize each facility’s physical plant to current standards as benchmarked to the best practices of our field. Included in the renewals are San Miguel Hall, and San Nicolas Hall. The San Miguel renewal will be completed in fall 2006, and San Nicolas in the fall of 2007.

The Sierra Madre Apartments will add to our complement of family student residences. Sierra Madre is located on UCSB’s North Campus, and will consist of 151 three-bedroom units, a housing type that is not currently in the mix of family student housing offerings. We expect to occupy Sierra Madre by the fall of 2009.

The future of our civilization lies in our ability to make sense of the complex organisms and structures in our society today. We, in H&RS, have consciously shifted the efforts of our daily activities to areas that sometimes have been neglected or undervalued by society at large. Qualities like diversity, trust, community and continuous learning have required us to develop an ability to bring together and reconcile differing perspectives and approaches. The key element is our reliance on each other to build communities that not only work, but function at their fullest potential.

The greatest measure of our success is in watching the passion with which people approach their work life. We are about … making a difference!

Peace.
